Features: Pressbooks Enterprise Networks

Institutional Network	• Hassle-free network set-up in highly secure SaaS environment • Publishing platform access • Custom-branded network catalog to display published books/work • Author seats tailored to client • Book limits tailored to client • Up to three Network Manager seats to administer users and books • Choice of 20+ themes to customize book appearance • Responsive Premium Support Included features • Write or import original content • Clone and adapt existing content from openly licensed books • Add images, multimedia, glossary terms, footnotes • Collaborate with multiple authors and contributors in any book • Add and display book info (metadata) • Certified LMS 1.3 integration for Canvas, Brightspace, Blackboard, and Moodle • Easily create, copy, or embed interactive learning activities via H5P • Add social annotation via Hypothes.is • Publish accessible (WCAG 2.1 compliant) digital books • Produce accessible EPUB and PDF exports • Produce XML, XHTML, and Common Cartridge export files • Monitor usage with book, user, and network analytics • Boost discoverability via Pressbooks Directory, EBSCO, Ex Libris
Shared Network	Same as Enterprise Network above, plus: • Multiple member institutions in a system or consortium may share and publish on the same central network • User and book limits tailored to consortial needs • Up to five Network Manager seats to administer users and books • Analytics and data downloads to track user, book, and network activity • Single license agreement to simplify procurement for members Shared Network Plug-in: Add-on features to save time and ease administration for consortial clients • Add and manage member institutions in your Enterprise Network • Add and manage users in your network • Associate books and users with institutions in your network • Designate institutional managers for Premium Member Buy-ins • Track and manage usage via network and institution-level analytics Shared Network Premium Member Buy-ins: Add-on option for individual members to increase publishing capacity and manage Pressbooks usage locally • Institutional option to publish books above and beyond the central Shared Network cap • Designate up to three Institutional Managers to administer books and users • Manage your institution's user and book administration • Track usage with institution-level user and book analytics • Access to Premium Support for Institutional Managers

Want to learn more about Pressbooks Enterprise Networks? Reach out to sales@pressbooks.com

Want to learn more about Pressbooks Enterprise Networks? Reach out to sales@pressbooks.com